Marco Villavicencio takes great pride in recognizing Coco Pazzo patrons by their second visit. His winning smile and warm personality are both welcoming and genuine. “Marco is gracious to every person that comes into the restaurant and those he has known for years are greeted like family,” says a long time Coco Pazzo patron.

Marco has been at Coco Pazzo Restaurants for eight years. His first position was as a bartender and he has been a manager since 2005. Marco has a way of making guests feel special and they are very much a part of his life. Not surprising, he considers Coco Pazzo patrons an extension of his own family.
