

Francesco Plati, Manager

Francesco Plati is from Azzano Decino in Friuli, a town just north of Venice, Italy. His professional career began in Udine, Italy after earning his degree and becoming a certified Sommelier specializing in Italian wines. Francesco moved to Houston in 2006 and then to Chicago in 2007 where he became the general manager of Bice Bistro.

Fluent in Italian, English, German and Spanish, Francesco is able to chat with most anyone who enters Coco Pazzo. Being with Coco Pazzo customers is his joy and watching them smile when he recommends the perfect dish accompanied by the perfect wine is a passion he lives each day.
